GEORGE M. STEINBRENNER III

Success in both the world of business and sports is nothing new to George M. Steinbrenner, Principal Owner of the New York Yankees.

In 1973, Steinbrenner put together the group who purchased the New York Yankees from CBS. Under his direction, it took just five years for his aggressive leadership to turn the Yankees once again into World Champions. In the decade of the 1980's, the Yankees won more games than any other club in Major League Baseball. They are also the last team to win consecutive World Championships.

His success in the sports world is not limited to the Yankees. He was a multi-sport athlete at Culver Military Academy, where he is in the Athletic Hall of Fame, and at Williams College. He began his coaching career as an assistant football coach at two Big Ten schools, Northwestern and Purdue, and followed that by assembling championship basketball teams in both the National Industrial and American Basketball Leagues.

A holder of four honorary doctorate degrees, Steinbrenner is heavily involved in civic and community causes. He is the founder of the Silver Shield Foundation in New York City, which provides college educations for all children of policemen, housing and transit police, fire-fighters and state troopers who gave their lives in the line-of-duty.

He served as Chairman of the Olympic Overview Commission, which was created to evaluate the structure and efforts of the United States Olympic program. In February 1989 he was elected to the position of Vice President, U.S. Olympic Committee—a position he still holds today. He probably devotes as much time and effort to the U.S. Olympic Committee as he does to his many other sporting endeavors and spent most of February 1992 in Albertville, France with the U.S. Olympic team.

Adding to his sports involvement, Steinbrenner is one of the owners of the Tampa Bay Lightning, a new franchise in the National Hockey League.

In 1993, Joe Molloy begins his second season as General Partner of the New York Yankees. The 32-year-old (3/13/61) executive was unanimously elected to succeed Daniel McCarthy as General Partner by the New York Yankees Partnership on March 12th, 1992, in Ft. Lauderdale, FL.

Molloy joined the Yankees in June of 1987 and shortly thereafter, was appointed Secretary/Treasurer of the club. He was named the club's Vice President in 1989, a position he held until February of 1992. Under Dan McCarthy, Molloy was the club's Chief Administrative Officer.

Molloy has continuously handled a plethora of diverse responsibilities since joining the Yankees. His duties have included running the club's day-to-day procedures of the minor league, player development and scouting systems in Tampa, Florida. Under his tenure from 1987-92, Yankee minor league affiliates won 11 league championships.

In addition to player development, under his tutelage, the Yankees have made great strides in other areas as well. Molloy was instrumental in the creation of the Yankees state-of-the-art, year round, baseball complex in Tampa, FL. And in the 1992 off-season, Molloy helped engineer the signings of free-agents Wade Boggs, Jimmy Key and Spike Owen.

Before joining the Yankees, Molloy worked as an educator and coach at St. Lawrence Catholic School in Tampa, FL. He is a graduate of St. Leo College in Florida and a native of the Tampa area.

Joe, his wife Jessica, and their three children, Elizabeth, Jennifer and Robert Joseph, reside in Tampa, FL.

GENE MICHAEL

The 1993 season constitutes Gene Michael's 23rd year in the Yankee organization as a player, coach, manager, general manager or scout. On August 20, 1990, when he was transferred from his scouting position to Vice President and General Manager, Michael started his second stint in that capacity with the Yankees.

Michael scouted and coached from 1988-90, prior to his appointment. The only time he spent away from the Yankee organization was during the 1986-87 campaigns, when he managed the Chicago Cubs. From 1983-86, Michael was an on-field coach with the Yankees.

In 1981 he managed the Yankees to a first-half championship in a split-season and remained until September before being replaced by Bob Lemon. He took over again as manager, replacing Lemon in 1982, 14 games into the season. He, in turn, was replaced by Clyde King after 86 games.

His other stint as General Manager came in 1980, with the Yankees posting a 103-59 record, good for first place in the American League East.

He was a coach in 1976 & 1978, and worked in the front office in 1977. In 1979, Michael had his first taste of managing, leading the Columbus Clippers to an International League Championship.

Michael played in the major leagues from 1966-76 with five different clubs: Pittsburgh, Los Angeles, Detroit, Boston and the Yankees (1968-74). Overall, the steady fielding shortstop hit .229 and had a .963 career average with the glove.

Gene makes his home in Upper Saddle River, New Jersey. He has three grown children: Sandra, Mark and Matthew. Michael is the founder of the "Gene Michael Fund", a chapter of the "Tomorrow's Children Fund". The fund raises money for research, care and assistance for children's cancer at the Hackensack Medical Center.

Yankee Stadium's playing field covers approximately 3.5 acres . . . the entire stadium area is on 11.6 acres. A combination of some 800 multi-vapor and incandescent lamps illuminate the field, with powers of up to 1500 watts.

DID YOU KNOW . . . that Yankee Stadium is built almost in the spot where baseball originated in the Bronx? The Unions of Morrisania, who called themselves the champions of the world around 1866, played near the spot where the old Melrose station of the Harlem Railroad was located.

YANKEE STADIUM MONUMENT PARK

Since 1932 the New York Yankees have honored their greatest greats with the erection of monuments and plaques in the outfield section of Yankee Stadium.

On May 30, 1932 the first monument was dedicated to the memory of Miller Huggins, the diminutive manager who guided the Yankees to six American League pennants and three World Championships, who had suddenly died the year before.

The first plaque was placed on the centerfield wall in April, 1940, a tribute to Jacob Ruppert, the former owner who had built Yankee Stadium and brought the tradition of winning to the Yankees.

Two more monuments followed in 1941 for the "Captain" Lou Gehrig and in 1949 for slugger Babe Ruth.

Later plaques were placed in centerfield for General Manager Edward Barrow and the Yankees two great centerfielders, Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle.

Originally the monuments and plaques were part of the playing field. The monuments and flag pole were located in straight-away centerfield on the warning track about ten feet in front of the wall. Sometimes long hits and fly balls forced fielders to go through or behind the monuments to retrieve the long drives.

As much of a tradition as the monuments and plaques themselves, was the tradition of allowing fans to exit Yankee Stadium through the centerfield gates via the warning track, pausing and reflecting on the achievements of these great men.

When Yankee Stadium was closed for renovation in 1974 and 1975, the monuments and plaques were relocated to the new Monument Park between the Yankee and visiting bullpens. However, fans were not allowed to exit via the warning track and viewing of Monument Park was only allowed at a great distance.

In 1976 two more plaques were added memorializing managers Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel.

In the '80's plaques have been dedicated to the following Yankee greats: Thurman Munson (1980), Roger Maris and Elston Howard (1984), Phil Rizzuto (1985), Billy Martin (1986), Lefty Gomez and Whitey Ford (1987), Yogi Berra and Bill Dickey (1988), and Allie Reynolds (1989).

Two other plaques commemorating the visits of Pope Paul VI in 1965 and Pope Paul II in 1979 have been placed by the Knights of Columbus.

In 1985 the Yankees were again able to open up the Monument Park area for fan viewing with the moving in of the left-centerfield fence. Long lines and increased fan interest has caused the Yankees to move the fence in further and expand the Monument Park area. In addition, the Yankees have included a special walk honoring those Yankees who have had their uniform numbers retired.

YANKEES ON THE AIR

Yankee baseball will be broadcast for the 55th consecutive season in 1993. WPIX-TV (Channel 11) will be the New York City television outlet for the 43rd straight season, while WABC Radio (770 AM) is leading the Yankee radio network as the flagship station for the 13th straight year. A network covering 12 states also participates in the Yankees' TV and radio coverage. The Madison Square Garden Network is beginning its fifth season as the Yankees' cable television outlet in the tri-state area, and Yankee games also will be broadcast in Spanish to Latin America for the 24th straight season. These comprehensive broadcast outlets insure that Yankee baseball will be one of the most widely available sports events in the country.

JOHN STERLING and MICHAEL KAY begin their second season paired as Yankee broadcasters on WABC radio. Sterling, in his 5th season as a Yankee broadcaster, has broadcast Atlanta Braves and Hawks games on Superstation WTBS. He has also broadcast New Jersey Nets and New York Islanders games locally. Michael Kay will begin his second season behind the mike. Kay, 32, was a Yankee beat writer for 5 years, from 1987-88 with the NY Post and 1989-90 with the Daily News. In 1991 year he joined MSG Network on the postgame show and has been hosting a sports talk show on WABC. The Bronx native is a graduate of Fordham University. Engineer/Producer Brian Fergenson begins his 13th season in the booth.

On MSG, DEWAYNE STAATS and TONY KUBEK return for their fourth season to handle play by play and color analysis in the broadcast booth. Staats and Kubek are joined again by AL TRAUTWIG, who will handle the pre-game show ("Yankee Scorecard"), post game show, and broadcast from the booth. Staats served as the play by play announcer for the Chicago Cubs on WGN-TV and radio from 1985-89. He also handled play by play duties for the Houston Astros for eight seasons prior to joining the Cubs. Kubek, the longtime analyst for NBC Sports, "Baseball Game of the Week," and one of the most respected voices in baseball, also returns for his third campaign with the Yankees. Kubek spent 24 years in the NBC booth, working with Jim Simpson, Curt Gowdy, Joe Garagiola and Bob Costas. He also spent 13 seasons as a television broadcaster for Toronto Blue Jays baseball. Kubek was a popular Yankee shortstop for the duration of his career (1957-65), going to six World Series along the way.

On WPIX, the trio of PHIL RIZZUTO, BOBBY MURCER and TOM SEAVER begin their third season together in the television booth. Rizzuto, the greatest shortstop in Yankee history, begins his 53rd season of affiliation with the New York Yankees, and 37th as a broadcaster. The 1950 American League MVP moved into the broadcast booth immediately following his playing career (1941-56) in 1957. Murcer, a former star outfielder for the Yankees, returns for his fifth season, and third consecutive, as a Yankee broadcaster. Seaver's broadcast career started in 1975, when he did work for Channel 2 in New York. He also worked post-season for ABC and NBC from 1976-82 and for CBS Radio as well. The 311 game winner is a three time Cy Young award winner and a 1992 inductee into the Baseball Hall of Fame. He returns for his 5th season in the Yankee booth. Director/Producer John Moore begins his 14th season with WPIX.

DID YOU KNOW ... The Yankees have won doubleheaders via shutouts in both games 14 times, most recently on April 19, 1987 when Charles Hudson and a combined Tommy John, Pat Clements and Dave Righetti shutout stopped the Royals at Yankee Stadium. It's happened to the Yankees only four times, most recently on July 27, 1975 when Bill Lee and Roger Moret of Boston shut down the Yankees at Shea Stadium.

The Yankees and Mets have played 90 times, with the Yankees winning 53, losing 36 and one ending in a tie ... in the spring they hold a 38-27 edge, including a 4-1 edge in home-and-home series at Yankee and Shea Stadium ... the 1989 home-and-home series was the first involving two New York teams since the Yankees and Dodgers played each other from the early 1940s until 1957 ... the Yankees also hold a 10-8-1 edge in Mayor's Trophy games which were held from 1963 to 1983 (except 1980 and 1981).

YANKEE GRAND SLAMS

The Yankees hit four grand slams in 1992 after hitting just four over the 1989-91 seasons combined ... their 10 slams in 1987 tied the ML record ... overall, the franchise has hit 255 grand slams in 253 games, and posted a 226-26-1 record in such games, translating into an .897 winning percentage ... they are 123-11 in home games and 103-15-1 in road games ... Yankee pitching allowed three slams in 1992, most recently by Jose Canseco on 8/20/92 in NY off John Habyan ... four pitchers have hit grand slams for the Yankees: Red Ruffing (1933), Spud Chandler (1940), Don Larsen (1956) and Mel Stottlemyre (1965) ... there have been 13 pinch-slams in Yankee history, the last by Jose Cruz (7/16/88) ... the club has had two multi-slam games, on 6/29/87 (Winfield & Mattingly) and 5/24/36 (Lazzeri, two) ... in ML history there have been only 19 last inning slams that have taken the team to sudden victory when trailing by three runs, including just one in Yankee history: Babe Ruth on 9/24/25 off Chicago's Sarge Connally with one out giving the Yankees a 6-5 victory ... Ruth twice hit slams on consecutive days.

ABOUT ONE-HITTERS

Yankee pitchers have hurled 53 one-hitters over the years, the most recent coming last season when Sam Militello in his Major League debut combined with Steve Farr on August 9th vs Bos. The only hit in the 6-0 victory was Tony Pena's second inning single. The last Yankee complete game one-hitter came on July 7, 1991 in Anaheim, when Scott Sanderson hurled the second of his career. Sanderson struck out one and did not walk anyone in the 2-0 victory. The only hit allowed was a leadoff double from Luis Polonia in a 4th inning. It was the first complete game one-hitter by a Yankee pitcher since Luis Tiant on July 8, 1979 at Oakland, with Rickey Henderson spoiling the bid. It was one of three one-hitters, Tiant pitched in his career. Bob Turley and Whitey Ford each hurled three one-hitters for New York, and both men participated in a fourth. Bob Shawkey, Rip Collins, Lefty Gomez, Vic Raschi and Floyd Bevens each threw two, with one of Bevens' coming in Game 4 of the 1947 World Series. Bevens had a no-hitter for 8.2 innings, when the Dodgers Cookie Lavagetto doubled in two runs giving Brooklyn a 3-2 victory. It was the last game Bevens would ever pitch.

The Yankees have been one-hit 48 times, with the last one occurring on June 7, 1990 at Boston by the Red Sox Greg Harris and Jeff Reardon. Jesse Barfield's two-out 5th inning single spoiled the bid and was the only Yankee baserunner. Reardon pitched a 1-2-3 9th to finish the game. The last complete game one-hitter was on August 3, 1987 when Cleveland's Tom Candiotti accomplished the feat in Cleveland . . . Joe Wood, Earl Hamilton, and Nolan Ryan are the only men with a pair of one-hitters against New York, with both of Hamilton's coming in 1913. No-hit pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm also one-hit the Yankees in 1959.

Horace Clarke and Don Mattingly are the only Yankees to twice serve as spoilers. Clarke had the only hit in no-hit bids by Jim Palmer and Joe Niekro. In 1970 Clarke broke up three no-hitters in the 9th inning in one month, two of which wound up being more than one-hitters. On May 2, 1984 Mattingly ruined a perfect game at Chicago for LaMarr Hoyt with a wind-blown single in the 7th inning and three years ago broke up Moose Haas' no-hit bid.

Of recent vintage, Bob Ojeda of Boston took a no-hit into the 9th inning at Yankee Stadium 9/12/81 only to have Rick Cerone leadoff with a double followed by a Dave Winfield double.

James P. Dawson Award

The James P. Dawson Award was established in honor of the late sportswriter of the New York Times who died while covering the Yankees during spring training. It is presented annually to the outstanding rookie in spring training. Two former winners of the award, Tony Kubek in 1957 and Tom Tresh in 1962, went on to win American League Rookie of the Year honors. The award was first presented to rookie Norm Siebern by manager Casey Stengel in St. Petersburg at the conclusion of spring training in 1956. Media personnel who regularly cover the Yankees vote to decide the winner.

1992 SEASON: Acquired on January 10, 1992, along with pitchers Domingo Jean and Melido Perez, in exchange for Steve Sax plus cash considerations...has taken the accelerated path to the majors, and in 1992, showed that he is a capable pitcher at the ML level... started the season at "AAA" Columbus, and ended the season in pinstripes...had contract purchased from Columbus on 8/23...at the time of recall, sported a 12-5 record with a 2.92 ERA over 23 starts (157IP, 131H, 55B, 108K)...also had two CG and a SHO to his credit...immediately placed in starting rotation, after just 23 career "AAA" starts and 20 "AA" starts...made his debut on 8/24 vs Mil...did not earn a decision in a 9-8 Yankee win, as the pen blew the save chance when Bob left leading 5-4 after six innings...earned first ML win in next start, on 8/29 @Min, 6-3...pitched eight innings with Farr earning the save...endured a 23 minute power outage in the Metrodome after the top of the third inning...after two more wins, took only loss on 9/14 vs Chi...finished the season with another three-game win streak...final start came on 10/2 @Bos, allowing one run over six innings in a 6-3 Yankee win...overall in pinstripes, was 6-1 with a 4.11 ERA in his eight starts.

POINTS OF INTEREST: Posted five wins in Sept/Oct, tied for second most in the majors (with five others) behind Cal Eldred's six wins...started out 3-0, as did his teammate, Sam Militello...his 6-1 start overall was the best by a Yankee starter to begin his career since Tom Morgan started out 8-1 in 1951...as Morgan's second win was in relief, the last pure starter to begin better was the Chairman of the Board, Whitey Ford, who started 9-0 in 1950...Farr saved five wins and Cadaret saved one... Nokes (6) and Stanley (2) caught when he pitched...supported with 50 runs (6.3 r/g) and the team hit .307 (87-283) with 11 HR when he started...registered 89 ground outs, 39 air outs, 21 Ks (1 CS, 1 PO & 1 OF assist also)... threw 784 pitches, 451 for strikes (58%)...ERA by segment: innings 1-2-3: 4.88 (24IP, 13ER)...innings 4-5-6 3.68 (22IP, 9ER)...innings 7-8-9: 2.08 (4.1 IP, 1ER)...Yanks were 7-1 in his eight starts...aided by 7 DPs...was 2-1, 5.09 in four home starts and 4-0, 3.29 in four road starts...LH batters hit .281 and RH batters hit .265...handled 10 chances in the field without an error...between Columbus and NY, led the organization in wins (18).

COLUMBUS INFO: Had a sensational season in his first action at the "AAA" level...was a last minute addition to the "AAA" roster on 4/9, when Wade Taylor was placed on the DL...led the Clippers in IP (157) and tied with Militello for the club lead in wins (12)...was third in ERA (2.92)...Clippers were 14-9 when he started and the Int. League hit .227 against him...made 18 quality starts...pitched two scoreless innings in the All-Star game...the IL Player of the Week from 6/7-13, following a CG,3-hit shutout of Syracuse...the organization's Pitcher of the Month in May (6-0, 1.91) and in August (3-0, 1.50), and the Topps International League Player of the Month in June (3-1, 1.67)... owns a career minor league mark of 32-19 with a 2.75 ERA.

1991: Started the season at "A" Sarasota, and finished at "AA" Birmingham...earned promotion from Sarasota after making just 7 starts, going 5-1 with a 2.05 ERA...at Birmingham was 6-10 with a 3.56 ERA and 4 CGs over 20 starts.

1990: First year of professional baseball...pitched for three different clubs, combining to go 9-3 with a 1.62 ERA over 13 starts...pitched better as he progressed, going 7-2 with a 1.38 ERA and 3 CGs in 9 starts at "A" South Bend.

The Columbus Clippers completed a record-setting season with their second straight Governors' Cup Championship, a feat last accomplished by the 1982-83 Tidewater Tides. The Clippers cruised into the playoffs with a 95-49 record, marking the largest win total by an International League team since Toronto in 1960 (100-54) and the most in the 100-year history of pro baseball in Columbus since the 1941 Red Birds (95-58). Their regular season winning percentage of .660 was the highest in the I.L. since 1938, when the Newark Bears went 104-48 (.684). Their franchise success may only have been matched by the 1933 Red Birds, which posted a 101-51 regular season slate to record the only higher winning percentage in Columbus history (.664). Including playoff action, the '92 edition equalled the '33 squad for the best record in Columbus professional heritage (101-51). The Clippers road record of 49-23 also established a franchise standard. The record-setting campaign did not go unnoticed, as 613,416 people visited Cooper Stadium during the 1992 regular and post-season, setting both a franchise and International League record.

YANKEE PITCHERS AT BAT . . . Since the inception of the Designated Hitter rule in 1973, only five Yankee pitchers have come to bat in regular season play . . . Lindy McDaniel was 0-2 in 1973 . . . Sparky Lyle was 0-1 in 1974 . . . Catfish Hunter was 0-1 in 1976 . . . Ron Davis struck out against Mark Clear in Anaheim on July 14, 1979, and struck out against Bill Castro of Milwaukee on April 20, 1980 . . . Rick Rhoden, the last Yankee pitcher to hit, started as the Designated Hitter on June 11, 1988 vs. Baltimore and batted seventh in the lineup; he grounded out to third base in the third inning off Jeff Ballard and in the fourth inning hit a sacrifice fly to right field off Ballard, scoring Jay Buhner from third . . . Rhoden's AB was the first instance since the inception of the DH that a pitcher has started and played a game as the DH . . . he was also the first American League pitcher to bat since Detroit's Mike Henneman batted on September 26, 1987 . . . as a team, the Yankees recorded 44,059 at-bats between Davis' last at-bat and Rhoden's first AB . . . the last Yankee pitcher to get a hit in either regular or post-season play was Larry Gowell, who on 10/4/72 singled off Milwaukee's Jim Lonborg, at Yankee Stadium.
